Post-holders will be expected to respond to calls by attending Service User homes within 60 minutes across Hertfordshire.

Context

The British Red Cross helps people in crisis, whoever and wherever they are. We are part of a global voluntary network, responding to conflicts, natural disasters and individual emergencies. We enable vulnerable people in the UK and abroad to prepare for and withstand emergencies in their own communities. And when the crisis is over, we help them to recover and move on with their lives. Within the UK, the British Red Cross operates through over 3000 staff and over 20,000 volunteers.

The Independent Living (IL) & Crisis Response (CR) service (IL/CR) supports people in the space between hospital and home and responds to the needs of people in crisis following an emergency, maintaining an extensive network of external relationships across health, social care, and emergency services.

Overall purpose of the role

To work flexibly on a 24 hour per week shift pattern, to respond to vulnerable adults who have Telecare alarms in their own homes, to provide practical and emotional support as appropriate.

Principal responsibilities

1. Service delivery

- > To answer an alert from the Call Centre and arrive at the Service-User's home within 60 minutes.
- > Work flexibly within a 7-day rolling shift pattern, covering a variety of shifts.
- > Recording and reporting of activities undertaken and highlighting any changes in a Service User's condition and ensure that appropriate actions are taken if a Service User's health deteriorates.
- > Liaise with family and other professionals to ensure that the needs of the individual are consistently met.
- > Carry out risk assessments and provide information/advice to Service User's whilst respecting their individual dignity, choice and rights.
- > Carry out follow-up welfare checks and visits as required and inform the office team of any issues that may need addressing.

2. Quality and performance

- > To comply with British Red Cross Health & Safety policies including those on lone working, manual handling and infection control.
- > To ensure Service Users' health and wellbeing is preserved and safeguarding policies and procedures are followed at all times.

3. Team member

- > Adhere to policies and procedures regarding data protection and confidentiality.
- > To undertake training as required and be prepared to travel within the area of Hertfordshire to attend any relevant meetings.
- > Undertake any other relevant duties that may be required from time to time.
- > Work flexibly around the needs of the service (evening & weekends/bank & public holidays).

Staff may not unreasonably refuse a request to undertake any task which is appropriate to their level for which they have the necessary skills and / or experience. Any resulting change to their objectives and priorities will be discussed and confirmed with their line manager.
