Context

We help anyone, anywhere in the UK and around the world, get the support they need if crisis strikes: connecting human kindness with human crisis.

We enable vulnerable people in the UK and abroad to prepare for and withstand emergencies in their own communities. And when the crisis is over, we help them to recover and move on with their lives.

We are part of the global Red Cross and Red Crescent humanitarian network.

Health and Local Crisis Response (HLCR) supports people in the space between hospital and home and responds to the needs of people in crisis following an emergency; maintaining an extensive network of external relationships across health, social care, and emergency services.

Our values and principles

Our values (compassionate, courageous, inclusive and dynamic) underpin everything we do. As a member of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement, the British Red Cross is committed to, and bound by, its fundamental principles: humanity, impartiality, neutrality, independence, voluntary service, unity and universality.

Purpose of the Role

The Service Coordinator will be responsible for liaising with hospital staff and other medical professionals in the community, including GP surgeries, to receive patient referrals. Thorough records will be required to evaluate and analyse the outcomes of the services, and this will be the responsibility of the Service Coordinator. Other responsibilities will include assigning incoming referrals to a Service Support Worker (or equivalent), monitoring the service delivery, managing the service budget, ensuring service health and safety, evaluating progress, overseeing record-keeping, recruiting, engaging and managing volunteers, attending hospital meetings, and ensuring the team works together seamlessly

The post-holder will act as contingency for Service Assistants when required and may need to provide cover for their colleagues at other hospitals served by the Red Cross in the area.

Service confidentiality and safeguarding vulnerable people are key responsibilities of the role.

The post requires regular evening work, being part of a regular 24 hour duty officer on-call rota and potential emergency response duties at any time throughout the year.

Main responsibilities

1. Service Delivery

- > To act as the single point of access for referrals from the hospital and other sources and provide daily coordination and support for Volunteers and Service Assistants delivering the service

- > Ensure that service users' needs are assessed
- > Develop the service, providing support, leadership and motivation to the staff and volunteers
- > Undertake service user visits if necessary

2. Quality and performance

- > Ensure that the service is efficient, reliable and delivered consistently with national and local guidelines, using the Quality Standards Framework as a basis for assessment
- > Collaborate with colleagues within the area to establish effective working relationships through regular contact and meetings
- > Share learning to ensure service development
- > Ensure that the impact of our service for service users is recorded through appropriate records (such as BRM), complete reports and paperwork as required

Review and monitor outcomes for service users, ensuring that beneficiaries' needs are met using the Top 3 goals approach and the impact of our service is recorded through accurate statistics and a range of user engagement

- > Ensure service users are correctly discharged according to agreed procedures

3. Management

- > Provide support to the staff and volunteers delivering services
- > Work with relevant teams in the recruitment, induction, development, training and engagement of volunteers providing the service

- > Co-ordinate and manage a team of staff and Volunteers to provide a professional , effective and reliable service

4. Financial

- > Keep within the service budget, follow local financial procedures

5. Team Leader

- > All team members understand their responsibilities and objectives
- > All resources involving staff are managed in accordance with BRC policies and procedures
- > All staff are kept informed of relevant organisational plans and updates on development
- > There is a collaborative approach to understanding and developing the service by encouraging feedback from the teams

6. Team Member

- > Actively participates in all team meetings
- > Supports other team members
- > Work and behaves in accordance with all BRC policies and procedures
- > Upholds the fundamental principles of the Red Cross and acts with integrity, in accordance with the Society's values (inclusive, compassionate, courageous and dynamic).

Staff may not unreasonably refuse a request to undertake any task which is appropriate to their level for which they have the necessary skills and / or experience. Any resulting change to their objectives and priorities will be discussed and confirmed with their line manager.
