Context

We help anyone, anywhere in the UK and around the world, get the support they need if crisis strikes: connecting human kindness with human crisis.

We enable vulnerable people in the UK and abroad to prepare for and withstand emergencies in their own communities. And when the crisis is over, we help them to recover and move on with their lives.

We are part of the global Red Cross and Red Crescent humanitarian network.

Our values and principles

Our values (compassionate, courageous, inclusive and dynamic) underpin everything we do. As a member of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement, the British Red Cross is committed to, and bound by, its fundamental principles: humanity, impartiality, neutrality, independence, voluntary service, unity and universality.

Purpose of the role

The Emergency Response Officer will coordinate the day to day function of all aspects the service. The post holder will deliver a wide range of activities within the area. Working as part of the area's emergency response team to further develop the Red Cross emergency planning role, to engage with external organisations and support our volunteers to build local resilience to emergencies.

The post requires regular evening work, being part of a regular 24 hour duty officer on-call rota and potential emergency response duties at any time throughout the year.

Main responsibilities

1. Support the delivery of the national and area plan

- To provide daily coordination of the service and overall support for the emergency response function including identifying improvements to our offer.

- > To be responsible for the achievement of local and team targets as part of the area and national plans.
- > To maintain an operationally ready rota of volunteers to support responses
- > To carry out regular audits of equipment, vehicles, work wear, service consumables (etc.) and ensure adequate supplies are delivered and stocks maintained and monitored.

2. Develop key stakeholder relationships

- > Develop and maintain positive relationships with external organisations
- > Be the main liaison point for the post holder's assigned Local Resilience Forum(s) –operating as the main VCS technical and strategic advisor to emergency responders and LRFs as appropriate
- > To be a key liaison point with the post holder's assigned local authority emergency planning teams
- > To be the main liaison point with the post's assigned local fire and rescue service

3. Support service development and contracts

- > Maximise the use of our capacity and capability to widen the roles and contribution the Red Cross can make in responding to crisis
- > Identify local changes and trends relevant to the delivery of existing and new services and act on these
- > Secure the funding for services where appropriate
- > Service contracts are negotiated and managed, including the authority to sign-off on small contracts
- > To contribute as required to service development activities at Area and national level
- > Provide event, incident and exercise administration, participate in exercises, and prepare and contribute to post event/incident reports

4. Ensure quality and good performance management

- > Monitor performance against KPI's and plan using financial / management information systems
- > Effectively manage all ER Area resources
- > To be responsible for the ER vehicles allocated to the role.
- > Ensuring the use of pertinent information to monitor and review service activity to determine resource allocation
- > Maintenance and implementation of statistical records, and provision of operational reports as required (e.g. via BRM) and effective liaison with internal reporting teams (e.g. Bas, HR, Q&O, Data Capture)
- > To support the EROM to ensure that appropriate service standards, recognised good practice, legal and other requirements are met

5. Management

- > To coordinate and support emergency response volunteers to ensure all competency and quality requirements are met and the highest standard of service is provided
- > To oversee recruitment, induction and training of new volunteers. Liaising effectively with internal business partners to meet these demands.
- > To support any training programmes by ensuring volunteer training pathways are identified and timely courses are available and delivered
- > To provide supervision, support, leadership, inclusion and motivation to the volunteer teams. (These meeting will usually take place in the evening and will form part of the core hours of the role)
- > To support and deputise for colleagues within the ER team as required

6. Team member

- > Regularly act as Duty Manager, by way of a rota and respond to emergency call-outs and major incidents as appropriate
- > Supports other team members, and establish effective working relationships with them
- > Actively participates in all team meetings
- > Provides support as required to the overall British Red Cross crisis response function – for example support to IL colleagues during winter pressure surges
- > Takes an active part in health, safety and welfare issues within the Area and takes responsibility on health, safety and welfare aspects of service delivery
- > Undertakes any other relevant duties as requested by the line manager
- > Work and behaves in accordance with all BRC policies and procedures
- > Upholds the fundamental principles of the Red Cross and acts with integrity, in accordance with the Society's values (inclusive, compassionate, courageous and dynamic).

Staff may not unreasonably refuse a request to undertake any task which is appropriate to their level for which they have the necessary skills and / or experience. Any resulting change to their objectives and priorities will be discussed and confirmed with their line manager.
