Context

The British Red Cross helps people in crisis, whoever and wherever they are. We are part of a global voluntary network, responding to conflicts, natural disasters and individual emergencies. We enable vulnerable people in the UK and abroad to prepare for and withstand emergencies in their own communities. And when the crisis is over, we help them to recover and move on with their lives. Within the UK, the British Red Cross operates through over 3000 staff and over 20,000 volunteers.

The Independent Living (IL) & Crisis Response (CR) service (IL/CR) supports people in the space between hospital and home and responds to the needs of people in crisis following an emergency; maintaining an extensive network of external relationships across health, social care, and emergency services.

Overall purpose of the role

To assist the Support Officer in providing administrative and operational support functions to the Area that is managed and delivered in accordance with both the needs of the Area and corporate requirements.

Principal responsibilities

1. General support

- > Meet and greet clients, the public, staff and volunteers in a positive and welcoming manner.

- > Respond to requests for Red Cross services/information, and sign-posting to other organisations as required.
- > Book and make arrangements for the meetings across the Area, providing administrative support including minute taking and arranging facilities as necessary.
- > General administrative and reception duties, post (incoming and outgoing), answering the telephone, emails, preparing general correspondence, etc. in support of all area staff.

2. Financial

- > Handling and securing of monies appropriately, and in accordance with financial procedures.

3. Data handling

- > Maintain confidential data in a secure and appropriate manner in line with information governance guidelines.
- > Provide proactive and efficient administrative support to service staff and assist with the delivery of services as appropriate, identifying areas for improvement to aid service delivery.
- > Co-ordinate and provide data entry as well as collate reports and assist in the production of accurate spreadsheets in order to assist service delivery.
- > To comply with British Red Cross Health & Safety policies including monitoring and recording health & safety in properties.

4. Team member

- > React to urgent building matters that may arise in the absence of line manager.
- > Support the emergency call-out procedure in line with the Area plan.
- > Mentor and support volunteers within the administration team, improving their skills and knowledge.
- > Undertake any other relevant duties that may be required from time to time.

Staff may not unreasonably refuse a request to undertake any task which is appropriate to their level for which they have the necessary skills and / or experience. Any resulting change to their objectives and priorities will be discussed and confirmed with their line manager.
