Context

We help people in crisis, in the UK and overseas. As part of a global voluntary movement, we respond to conflicts, natural disasters and individual emergencies, helping vulnerable people to prepare for, withstand and recover from emergencies.

Our principles and values

Our values (compassionate, courageous, inclusive and dynamic) underpin everything we do. As a member of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement, the British Red Cross is committed to, and bound by, its fundamental principles: humanity, impartiality, neutrality, independence, voluntary service, unity and universality.

Directorate overview – Refugee Support and Restoring Family Links

For people in crisis, as a result of their migration status, in need of protection, displaced and often having experienced family loss and separation our Refugee Support and Restoring

Family Links team will deliver on our unique position and responsibility as part a truly global humanitarian organisation, present at every stage on the migratory trail to:

- > Reduce destitution and exploitation
- > Restore family links and facilitate reunion
- > Challenge stigma and build inclusion
- > Ensure protection and empower people to make positive decisions to regain control of their lives

We will do this by mobilising the power of humanity through three distinct vehicles for change – advocacy, service delivery and by creating the right environment. We will engage with our service users and use their experience and evidence to inform our development and delivery and will seek out opportunities to build productive alliances across the UK, wider movement and beyond to enable delivery on our mission at the earliest opportunity. To deliver on our mission, we will focus on:

- > Strengthening the sector in which we operate
- > Ensuring all our services are truly accessible and developed through a process of inclusion and collaboration
- > Achieving policy change through effective advocacy underpinned by our extensive operational evidence
- > Develop key alliances, locally and nationally to increase public understanding and create a more welcoming environment
- > Develop partnerships to increase restricted / grant funding
- > Promote wellbeing and ensure inclusive, accessible and diverse development opportunities to engage with, work or volunteer

Local context

The refugee support service is a busy service which provided casework support and humanitarian assistance to over 2,300 service users in 2020. We are looking for a dynamic, hardworking and flexible caseworker to help deliver critical casework and destitution support to those in need during this pandemic and to enable those granted refugee status and leave to remain to move on, rebuild their lives and integrate into their local community.

Purpose of the role

As part of the Refugee Support and Restoring Family Links team, the Caseworker will be responsible for delivering casework services for refugees, asylum seekers and other vulnerable migrants in the Leicester area and undertake a range of duties designed to maintain, promote and improve the service.

Main responsibilities

2. Volunteer Support

- > Works with line manager and other departments to ensure future requirements for volunteers are identified within a workforce plan
- > Volunteers are supported on a day-to-day basis to deliver the casework functions of the service

3. Service user engagement and involvement

- > Processes are followed to allow people with lived experiences to contribute to service delivery, design and development
- > Service users have appropriate opportunities to provide feedback on the service which is then used for service improvement.

4. External partnerships and sector engagement

- > Good working relationships with external partners are maintained as required for the role
- > Issues are identified and escalated as appropriate
- > Referral pathways are effectively utilised and maintained to ensure holistic package of support for service users

5. Risk management and escalation

- > Follows procedures, policies and guidance to ensure a safe, effective and efficient environment
- > Risks and health and safety issues are rapidly identified and escalated as appropriate
- > Casework risks are identified, managed and/or escalated as appropriate
- > Safeguarding concerns are identified and receive appropriate responses according to policies, procedures and good practice.

6. Data management

- > Electronic and paper-based filing and database systems are maintained in accordance with quality standards and data protection
- > Effectively contributes to producing project updates and reports as required and works collaboratively to ensure effective information management systems are in place
- > Confidentiality and data protection is maintained in relation to all aspects of the service

7. Monitoring and evaluation

- > Undertakes monitoring and evaluation activities as required and ensures information is fed into structured evaluation, learning and advocacy processes

8. Workforce learning and development

- > Provides effective support for service learning and development activities, including delivery of training, in accordance with quality standards and agreed organisational approaches
- > Learning and emerging training needs are identified and shared as appropriate throughout the organisation
- > Reflective practice is used and promoted for development purposes

9. Local and national advocacy and awareness raising

- > Effectively contributes to agreed local awareness raising and advocacy activities, in line with organisational approaches
- > Effectively contributes to national advocacy and communications efforts where possible
- > Effectively contributes to the delivery of agreed activities to build inclusion for refugees and asylum seekers, for example during Refugee Week with reference to Service Manager and in line with agreed organisational approaches

10. Team worker

- > Works to ensure Behaviours Framework is embedded within service
- > Colleagues supported as required
- > Contributes effectively to team meetings
- > Suggests improvement to support continuous development
- > Provides contingency cover for colleagues in periods of absence as requested by line manager

11. Other duties

- > Perform clerical and administration duties commensurate with the post
- > Proactive in supporting own development

Staff may not unreasonably refuse a request to undertake any task which is appropriate to their level for which they have the necessary skills and/or experience. Any resulting change to their objectives and priorities will be discussed and confirmed with their line manager
